Very clear instructions and lectures. He turned some of the more challenging ideas of ethics into simple explanations. He was very friendly, charismatic, and open to students.

He always reassures that you understand the content of the material due to the fact that philosophy is a challenging subject

Robert was one of the best professors I had in my time at CSUSB. Clear teacher also cares about students overall great.

It was good!

Professor Mittendorf does great lectures. I always learned a lot from coming to class. He made confusing concepts more understandable. ☺

Everything was explain perfectly.
He always made sure everyone understood

For being his first quarter at CSUSB he did an amazing job as an instructor. He cared and engaged with all his students.

Very informative went into detail when explaining the articles.

No class wasted always doing something important.

Keeps class engaged and entertained

I liked the way the class setting worked, the homework was a bit hard to keep up with however. Especially between Tues and Thurs. Maybe give a week for the week of homework when we can do it in our own time before the week is done.

Great professor, made philosophy interesting, actually gets people to participate. Wants students to succeed

The professor was very lively and his enthusiasm was contagious.

I forgot it was his first quarter teaching and he did great and kept us engaged.

- goes in depth

He was interesting and cool. He helped me understand philosophy and made it fun & easy.

Very helpful and is willing to explain topics into much more detail.

The prof explained everything and involved all students to the exercises it was great.

Professor was very helpful, and lectures were easy to understand, gave great explanations

He spends time to explain each reading.

Teacher of the year!!

Please provide reasons why you gave the above rating for your professor's specific contributions to your learning in this course.

Allowed and encouraged students to work in groups to share their ideas, which helped us understand concepts. Allowed extra credit for students who needed it and was open to problems students had.

Gives a homework before every class which helps with understanding the lecture. He also gives a lot of thought experiments that get you think about the philosophers ideas

Excellent Teacher,

Professor Mittendorf answered all my questions and posted powerpoints to Blackboard.

One of the best prof. I have ever taken. Made sure I understood everything. Loved it.

He engaged enormously with his students and made sure everyone understood the topics discussed during class. Always w/ any questions.

was really good at making others contribute to the discussion.

He is very thorough and clear when explaining the material.
Challenges us, but makes it fun.

I can't really say as I didn't seek help

Really caring about students, great professor.

- quick email responses
- clear on what he want
- actually enjoyed coming to his class

Professor Mittendorf was amazing and made philosophy fun and interesting. Would take again.

- Was clear with expectations
